Why Household Size Matters
Why Household Size and Composition Matter

The federal poverty line (FPL) calculation requires...

- Number of individuals in a household
- Income of household members

...to determine premium tax credit and cost-sharing reduction eligibility

Why Tax Filing Status Matters
What Filing Statuses are Available to Taxpayers?

Single
- Is unmarried, or legally separated or divorced (as defined by state law)

Married Filing Jointly
- A person is legally married, whether living with or apart from his or her spouse, and files taxes together with his or her spouse

Married Filing Separately
- A person is legally married, whether living with or apart from his or her spouse, and files taxes separately from his or her spouse

Head of Household
- A person is unmarried or considered unmarried for tax purposes, pays more than half of the costs of keeping up the home for a qualifying person whom he or she will claim as a dependent

Qualifying Widow(er) w/ dependent child
- A person has a spouse who passed away in the two previous tax years, has a child or step-child who meets the definition of a Qualifying Child, and pays more than half the cost of keeping up the home for that child
• In general, a person who is married must file jointly with his or her spouse in order to be eligible for PTC

• Three exceptions to the joint filing requirement
  → Head of Household
  → Domestic abuse
  → Abandoned spouse

• If an exception applies, the marketplace applicant can indicate that he or she is not married

Note: If a person will file taxes as Married Filing Separately and doesn’t qualify for one of these exceptions, he or she could still be eligible for Medicaid and to purchase health insurance in the Marketplace at full cost (without PTC)
Head of Household

- A married person can claim to be unmarried on the application if they qualify to file as Head of Household.

When can a married person file as Head of Household?

A married person is considered unmarried and is eligible to file as Head of Household if he or she can answer YES to each of the following questions:

- Will you file taxes separately from your spouse?
- Will you live apart from your spouse from July 1 to Dec 31?
- Will you pay more than half of the cost of keeping up your home?
- Is yours the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child (of any age) for more than half the year?
- Are you eligible to claim the child as a dependent? (You meet this test if you are eligible to claim the child but the child is instead claimed by a noncustodial parent.)

If all the answers are Yes, the applicant is considered unmarried and can file as Head of Household. If the answer to any of these questions is No, the applicant cannot file as Head of Household.

Note: A special rule allows the resident spouse of a nonresident (as defined for tax purposes) to qualify as considered unmarried if they have a qualifying person and meet the other tests.
When can a married person file as Head of Household?

A married person is considered unmarried and is eligible to file as Head of Household if he or she can answer YES to each of the following questions:

- ✔ Will you file taxes separately from your spouse?
- ✔ Will you live apart from your spouse from July 1 to Dec 31?
- ✔ Will you pay more than half of the cost of keeping up your home?
- ✔ Is yours the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child (of any age) for more than half the year?
- ✔ Are you eligible to claim the child as a dependent? (You meet this test if you are eligible to claim the child but the child is instead claimed by a noncustodial parent.)

Yes, Marisa qualifies to file as Head of Household because she is considered unmarried by the IRS.

Therefore, when Marisa is asked if she is married, she can say No.

Example: Head of Household

Marisa and Amelie

- Marisa lives separately from her husband but is not yet divorced. They will not file taxes together or live together at any point in 2019.
- Amelie is Marisa’s teenage daughter. Amelie lives with Marisa during the school year and with her father during the summer.

Does Marisa qualify to file as Head of Household?

Marisa and Amelie

But what if...

- Marisa moves out of the area to care for an ailing relative. Amelie moves in with her father to finish her last year of high school and will live with him for more than half the year.

Does Marisa qualify to file as Head of Household?

NO, because she will not be the main home of her dependent child for more than half the year.
Exceptions to the Joint Filing Requirement for PTC

A married person can claim to be unmarried on the marketplace application under either of these circumstances:

Domestic abuse
- A taxpayer who is Married Filing Separately can meet joint filing requirement if:
  - ✓ Live apart from their spouse
  - ✓ Unable to file a joint return because of domestic abuse

Abandoned spouses
- A taxpayer who is Married Filing Separately can meet joint filing requirement if:
  - ✓ Live apart from their spouse
  - ✓ Unable to locate spouse after using reasonable diligence

Note: These exceptions can be used by people filing as “Married Filing Separately” for a maximum of three consecutive years
Determining Households for Premium Tax Credits
Households for Premium Tax Credits

Household: An individual’s tax unit

- Includes all individuals on a taxpayer’s return

- Can include:
  - ✓ Self and spouse
  - ✓ Tax dependents

- A household includes all individuals in the tax unit even if they are ineligible for a premium tax credit or have another source of insurance coverage

Note: Household size is based on expected tax filing status for the taxable year in which premium tax credits are being claimed
Determining Tax Dependents

Who Can Be Claimed as a Qualifying Child?

Children
A child can include the tax filer's child, step child, adopted child, foster child, brother, sister, niece, nephew or grandchild

- In general a child can be claimed as a Qualifying Child if she...
  - Is a U.S. citizen or resident (for tax purposes) of the U.S., Canada or Mexico
  - Lives with the tax filer for more than half the year
  - Is under 19 at the end of the year (or 24 if a full-time student or any age if disabled)
  - Doesn’t provide more than half of her own support

Health Reform: Beyond the Basics
The parent that claims the child as a tax dependent can claim PTC for the child:

Usually this is the custodial parent:

- If the custodial parent claims the child on the tax return, the custodial parent can claim PTC for the child.

But sometimes a child is claimed by the noncustodial parent:

- The custodial parent must sign a tax form granting the noncustodial parent the child’s exemption (Form 8332).
- If permitted to claim the child as a dependent, the noncustodial parent can claim PTC for the child.
Determining Tax Dependents

Who Can Be Claimed as a Qualifying Relative?

Other individuals
Other individuals can include a relative or a full-time member of the tax filer’s household who is not a relative

In general a person can be claimed as a Qualifying Relative if he...

- Cannot be claimed as a Qualifying Child
- Is a U.S. citizen or resident (for tax purposes) of the U.S., Canada or Mexico
- Receives more than 50% of his support from the tax filer
- Is related to the tax filer or lives in the tax filer’s home all year
- Gross income less than $4,150 in 2018 (generally doesn’t include social security)
Example: Can Jane be claimed as a tax dependent?

Jane
- 27 years old
- Lives with parents, rent-free
- Starting a new career. Works as an unpaid intern and has no earnings

Can Jane be claimed as a Qualifying Child?

✗ No

Children
A child can include the tax filer’s child, step child, adopted child, foster child, brother, sister, niece, nephew or grandchild

In general a child can be claimed as a Qualifying Child if she...

- Is a U.S. citizen or resident (for tax purposes) of the U.S., Canada or Mexico
- Lives with the tax filer for more than half the year
- Is under 19 at the end of the year (or 24 if a full-time student or any age if disabled)

Determining Households for MAGI Medicaid
Determining Households for Medicaid

MAGI rules apply to:

- CHILDREN
- PREGNANT WOMEN
- PARENTS / CARETAKER RELATIVES
- ADULTS (only in states expanding Medicaid)

Different household and income rules apply to:

- SENIORS (people 65 and over)
- MOST PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
Determining Households for Medicaid (MAGI Rules)

Three categories of individuals:

1. Tax filers not claimed as a tax dependent
2. Tax dependents (with 3 exceptions)
3. Non-filers not claimed as a tax dependent

Note:
- Separate determination for each individual
  - Members of a family can have different household sizes
- Based on expected filing status

<sup>3</sup> A pregnant woman is counted as herself plus the number of children she is expecting
<sup>4</sup> For individuals whose household includes a pregnant woman, states can count the pregnant woman as 1, 2, or 1 plus the number of children she is expecting
<sup>5</sup> States can extend the age limit to include individuals under 21 who are full-time students.

What Counts as Income for PTC and Medicaid
What Is Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI)?

Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)
As defined by the IRS, AGI is gross income minus adjustments to income

Non-Taxable Social Security Benefits
Social Security benefits not included in gross income

Tax-Exempt Interest
Interest income that is not subject to federal income tax

Excluded Foreign Income
Foreign earned income excluded from taxation of individuals who live abroad

= Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI)
General Rules About Counting Income

- Income can come in the form of money, goods, or services

- Cash income is taxable and included even if:

  "I haven’t declared it in the past"

  "It’s on the side"

  "It’s not my main job"

  "I only work seasonally or occasionally"
General Rules About Counting Income

All income is taxable unless specifically excluded by law from taxation

See IRS Publications 17 and 525 for more details on what income is taxable and not taxable

- Pre-tax deductions (such as contributions to a retirement plan) are not included in MAGI
- Social security (including survivors benefits and disability insurance) are generally not taxable but are included in the MAGI of a person with a tax filing requirement

For more information, see the Health Reform: Beyond the Basics Health Care Assister Guide to Tax Rules
Tips When Dealing with Self-Employment Income

Advice for estimating income:
- Does the person have regular monthly income?
- If no regular income, what jobs are lined up for the year?
- If no good projected estimate, consider adding or subtracting from previous year’s income (if available)
- Make estimates by job or by month (using receipts, invoices, bank records, etc.)

Advice for estimating expenses:
- Does the person have regular monthly expenses?
- What large expenses does the person anticipate?
- What were the person’s expenses in previous year?
- Use receipts, credit card/debit card records, known costs of supplies

What types of business expenses may be deductible?
- Advertising
- Commissions
- Contract labor
- Legal or professional fees
- Office supplies
- Rent/lease/repair of equipment
- Business meals and entertainment
- Telephone and utilities
- Business mileage or transportation expenses
2017 Tax Law Changes

Deductions
• There are several changes to deductions:
  → Moving expenses are no longer deductible
  → Student loan debt forgiven due to the death or disability is no longer income
  → Starting with judgments after January 1, 2019, neither spouse will include alimony on the tax return (Others can choose to adopt this method)
  → The tuition and fees deduction expired at the end of 2017 (however, Congress has renewed it retroactively in the past)

Who Can Be Claimed as a Dependent Doesn’t Change
• The rules about who can be claimed as a dependent don’t change, even though exemption deductions are eliminated

Dependent Filing Requirement
• The filing requirement for dependents is higher
  → If dependents don’t need to file and include their MAGI, some families will have lower household income
  → Result: More people may now qualify for Medicaid or receive a higher premium tax credit
When to Count a Dependent’s Income

Household’s Income:

- MAGI of tax filer and all tax dependents who are required to file a tax return

| A single dependent under age 65 has a tax filing requirement if (in 2018): |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Unearned income is more than $1,050 | OR | Earned income is more than $12,000 | OR | Taxable gross income is more than the larger of: |
| | | | | $1,050 | Earned income (up to $11,650) + $350 |

Note: Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and non-taxable Social Security benefits are not counted in making this determination

- If a dependent has a tax filing requirement, both taxable and non-taxable Social Security (but not SSI) are counted towards the household income

Note: The 2017 tax law changed some minor aspects of calculating MAGI for 2018 and beyond, most notably by raising the filing requirement for dependents. For more info, see Update: Changes to MAGI in 2018.
Example: Single Adult with Dependent

Jill and Ryan

- Jill lives with Ryan, her 17-year-old grandson, and claims him as a tax dependent
- Jill’s income: $18,000
- Ryan’s income from Social Security survivors’ benefits: $13,000

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>HH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jill</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ryan</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Ryan does not have a tax filing requirement so his income is not counted
- Even if Ryan’s Social Security benefits are paid to Jill on his behalf, the benefits are Ryan’s income
Example: Single Adult with Dependent

Jill and Ryan

- Jill lives with Ryan, her 17-year-old grandson, and claims him as a tax dependent
- Jill’s income: $18,000
- Ryan’s income from a part-time job: $13,000

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>

- Ryan’s income is above the tax filing threshold for a dependent so his income is counted towards the household income
Example: Single Adult with Dependent

Jill and Ryan

- Jill lives with Ryan, her 17-year-old grandson, and claims him as a tax dependent
- Jill’s income: $18,000
- Ryan’s income from a part-time job: $13,000
